

Health and Safety – Use of Tools for Constructing Model Architecture

(HS01a)

Tool	Hazard	Risk control measure
Craft knife	Cuts caused by incorrect and careless use	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • - hold the work correctly • - use safety ruler • - use a cutting mat
Scissors	Cuts caused by incorrect and careless use	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • - hold the work correctly • - carry with the blade closed and pointing down
Hot melt glue guns	Burns caused by incorrect and careless use (Hot melt glue melts at around 170°C) Electric shock caused by incorrect and careless use.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Secure long hair and loose clothing • allow glue gun to warm up before use • do not touch nozzle or glue • stand gun upright using metal stand • only use the provided hot melt glue sticks • In the event of glue contacting the skin plunge the burn in cold water • Gun must not come in contact with water • do not attempt to dismantle or repair gun • do not use gun if damaged

I have read and understood this Health and Safety sheet relating to the tools used for constructing architectural models.

Signature _____

Print name _____

Date _____